

LABOR TRIES TO END IRISH WAR
BY CHRISTMAS

Determined Effort Will Be Made to Bring About Peace Before Holidays.

SINN FEIN IS CONDEMNED

Labor Commission Strongly Condemns Slaying of British Police.

(By Webb Miller)
By United Press Leased Wire London.—A determined effort will be made to end British and Irish fighting by Christmas, it became apparent today.

At the same time it was announced in official circles that no truce will be considered until the campaign of murder in Ireland is terminated.

Lloyd George, plans to ask Lloyd George whether, in view of the approach of Christmas, he is prepared to consult Irish opinion in an effort to effect a "peace of God."

Another peace effort will be made by the British labor commission which went to Ireland to investigate police reprisals. The commission, headed by Arthur Henderson, has devoted from its program and has remained in Dublin to see what it can do to bring about peace conferences.

Henderson, after conferring here with Catholic leaders, Irish labor officials and others, is expected to return to London to see what can be done toward bringing about a joint conference.

Shocked by Murders
The commission was reported to have declared itself "horrified" at the Sinn Fein "campaign of murder," as expressed in the Dublin killings. As a result Henderson has recently expressed disapproval of the Sinn Fein campaign as much as he has the reprisals of British officers.

Labor party headquarters here declared it is using its influence to bring about a conference as soon as possible.

"The labor commission experienced the same revulsion as the rest of England at the murder of British officers in Dublin," it was said.

"When the commission left here it stressed the government's condemnation of reprisals and policy of coercion.
Now it is emphatic in denunciation of the Sinn Fein murder campaign."

Henderson hopes to make his commission a mediating organization, it was said at headquarters. Just now he was said to be emphasizing hope of a treaty between England and Ireland whereby an agreement might be reached on the question of Irish naval and military control. From the labor viewpoint it was necessary to insure that matter for Great Britain, it was said.

Must Stop Slaying
"Great Britain will not shake hands with murderers," an official of the Irish office declared when questioned as to the possibility of labor's mediation.

"The proposition of a peace conference is absolutely impossible so long as a murder campaign is in progress," he declared.

"The first demand on the government is the halting of murder over there."

Tension Is Relieved

Twenty seven persons were killed in Ireland during November, according to figures compiled by the Irish office. The total number of deaths in the revolt was placed at 771.

With tension somewhat lessened today there still was great activity by the police who searched Sinn Fein gatherings places and private residences for suspects and literature. Every large city in England put its police forces to work on the Sinn Fein case.

The government's home rule bill suffered another defeat last night in the house of lords when Lord Stan-don's amendment was adopted.

The amendment provided the Irish senate should consist of the northern and southern senates sitting jointly.

MINE WORKERS' LEADERS HEAR STORY OF STRIKE

By United Press Leased Wire Indianapolis, Ind.—The story of the strike of coal miners in the West Virginia fields was unfolded here today by the executive board of the United Mines Workers of America here today by Frank Kenney, Union president for that district, and David Fowler, union representative there.

Kenney and Fowler told the board about the occupancy of the coal fields by federal troops and other developments in the strike.

Action by the miners to meet the West Virginia situation was expected to result from the meeting.

BANDITS GET HAIL FROM POSTOFFICE AND MAILBAGS

Oneida, Tenn.—The Oneida postoffice was robbed by masked bandits last night, postal officials announced today.

Two mail bags, ready for shipment on southern railway train No. 6 were also stolen. The value of the loot was undetermined.

No. 6 ran in on a siding here, the switch having been thrown apparently for the purpose of holding up the train. The crew however, backed from the siding, threw the switch and continued to Cincinnati without interference.

They May Escape Rent Payment

Washington.—"Whatcha gonna do when the rent comes 'round?" may not mean a thing to Vice President-elect Calvin Coolidge, if the plans of an informal committee of senators do not go astray. These senators, it is understood, will offer a resolution when Congress reassembles, favoring the purchase, by the federal government, of a home for future vice presidents.

Various properties have been inspected and the so-called "Embassy Building," at 16th and Park rd., seems highly in favor. It was erected for Mrs.
John B. Henderson at a cost of $200, 000 and was originally intended for embassy or legation purposes. It is just being completed. Coolidge now lives in one-half of a double house in Northampton, Mass., and pays $32 a month rent. Above is shown the "Embassy Building," and below Coolidge

ONE PER CENT TAX ON SALES URGED AS REVENUE MEASURE

Senator Smoot Gives Inkling of
G. O. P. Plan for Revising Tax Schedule.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A one per cent tax on all sales to the ultimate consumer will be proposed as a substitute for the excess profits tax, Senator Smoot Utah, said today on his return to Washington.

This is one of the devices which, according to Smoot, the republicans will use in revising the revenue schedule.

Other details of the financial program which will be taken up at the special session after Harding's inauguration were outlined by Smoot as follows:

Increased tariff on many articles, included beet sugar, which Smoot said probably will carry a tariff of a cent and a half instead of the present rate of about one cent.

Revision of the income tax schedule probably increasing some rates.

Smoot said the small rates both as to individuals and corporations can not be lowered.

Reduction by at least 50 per cent of the government employees both in the District of Columbia and throughout the country.

Smoot also announced he will introduce a bill next week providing for an embargo on wool for one year. Such an embargo, he said, would give the American wool grower a chance to dispose of his piled up stock to American manufacturers who could then make woolen goods for domestic use.
If foreign wool is allowed to come in to the country, however, Smoot said, the American wool industry will be wiped out within a short time.

MUST PAY FARMERS'
PRICE OR CLOSE MILLS

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Paul.—Flour mill owners will either pay the farmer's price for wheat or face empty mills within six weeks, J. M. Anderson, president of the Equity cooperative exchange, told members of the Minnesota state union, American Society of Equity, here today.

"Despite the four or five million bushels of wheat being imported to the United States from Canada," said Anderson, "the mills will be forced to shut down within six weeks if they don't pay the cost of raising wheat, plus a legitimate profit to the farmer."

Elevators in some states are selling wheat stored by the farmer at their own price while the storage ticket is still in the pocket of the farmer, Anderson declared.

Red Sox Defeated

The Tigers defeated the Red Sox basketball team by a score of 20 to 17 at the high school gymnasium Thursday evening. In one of the series played by the girls of the Woman's club league. The score was 17 to 12 in the first half in favor of the Reds, but the Tigers did some hard playing that turned the tide.

GOVERNORS STUDY
FARMER PROBLEM

Agriculturist's Greatest Difficulty Is to Obtain Credit, Governors Say.

By United Press Leased Wire Harrisburg, Pa.—The conference of governors today devoted its attention to the problem confronting agriculturalists throughout the country.

A committee of five appointed to consider the credit marketing and other conditions affecting farmers was expected to report. The governors of Iowa, Louisiana, Indiana, North Carolina and Connecticut composed the committee.

Difficulties of financing state governments under present conditions were discussed today by Governor William O. Spruell, of Pennsylvania.

The increased cost of operation, as well as increased demands for state work, the high money rates prevailing and the invasion of the federal government for taxes in fields formerly reserved to the states, make the problem increasingly difficult, Spruell said.

Governor Parker, Louisiana, who addressed the conference on the subject of agriculture and precipitated the discussion declared the only way to deal with the situation is to encourage the farmer.

Governor Peter A. Norbeck, South Dakota, who will deliver an address on "Rural credits," explained the situation as it affects the farmers of the northwest in an interview shortly after his arrival today.

"One of the greatest drawbacks to the agricultural development of the northwest has been inability of the farmer to secure the necessary working capital," Norbeck said.

"Several states have made attempts to finance the farmer but their efforts have resulted in failure because the plan was not worked out on practical lines."

"In South Dakota, the problem has been solved outside capital has been obtained on our thirty year authorization plan. The farmer who wants a loan does not have to join an organization. He is not asked to become responsible in any way for his neighbor's loans. He deals with the state direct," Norbeck explained.

MOTHERS URGE SIMPLE
DRESSES FOR TEACHERS

By United Press Leased Wire
Toledo.—A resolution urging school teachers to wear simple garb if they want to hold their places and to refrain from using rouge in school hours, was passed by the Toledo housewives' league today.

The housewives claim that girl pupils copy their teachers. The resolution was introduced to further a sensible dress campaign for school girls conducted throughout the United States by the service star legion.

"With skirts to the knees and low knee waists, women would soon be dressing like South sea islanders unless checked up," Mrs. H. P. Hahn, wife of a Toledo physician and chairman of the housewives' league, said, week ago to open a grocery store.

The membership commission considered plans for special relations with nations too small to become members.
Lord Robert Cecil interpreted Article 10 as not guaranteeing territorial integrity.

The motion was adopted to refer proposed amendments to the covenant to a committee which report at the 1921 session.

The motion was opposed by Honoro Puerrdon, of Argentina, but President Wilson's declaration carried in spite of the negative vote.

Scandinavian states had urged immediate amendments.

Opposition to the Scandinavian demand was based partly on the grounds that the amendments would apply to the peace treaty also.

Interpret Article 10
The "league interpretation" of Article 10 of the covenant was declared by Lord Robert Cecil today to be that territorial integrity of member states is not guaranteed. Addressing the commission on new memberships,

"We formally remind all concerned that Article 10 does not guarantee territorial integrity of any member of the league. It limits our obligations to condemning any external aggression against territorial or political independence of any member of the league and makes it the duty of the council to advise what means are desirable to resist such aggression."

Lord Robert's remarks were made for the benefit of Austria, Costa Rica and other states whose applications for membership were acted upon yesterday.

"An honorary membership" he stated too small to assume full rights was proposed today by the league's commission on new admissions.

The proposal to the assembly was that special relations be established with the minor states.

The commission voted unanimously to reject the applications of Ukraine, Lichtenstein and Azerbaijan. Ukraine was considered too unsettled, Azeribaidjan was regarded as insecure and under Russian influence. Lichtenstein is among the small nations believed incapable of sustaining a full membership.

GRANT INJUNCTION AGAINST DAKOTA TAX

Fargo, N. D.—Five railroads operating in North Dakota have been granted an interlocutory injunction restrain-ing North Dakota from collecting capital stocks taxes amounting to 109,402-61 for the year 1919-20. The injunction holds until final disposition of the case.

Judges who heard the case argued in St. Paul Nov. 22, granted the injunction. Railroads affected are the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Soo Line and Montana and Eastern.

The president's speech delivered at St. Louis during his tour of the country more than a year ago, was recalled here as the most emphatic declaration that the league would help agriculture and industry in a material way.

Fear Mrs. Hamon Is Hiding In Mexico

By United Press Leased Wire Ardmore, Okla.—Blindfold police for more than a week, Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, wanted here in connection with the fatal shooting of Jake L. Hamon, a republican national committee man and millionaire oil king, today was believed to have crossed into Mexico and taken refuge within 50 miles of El Paso, Texas.

Reports received here stated that she made her escape by automobile.
County Prosecutor Russell Brown, it was said, has received statements from two chauffeurs at Dallas, Texas, who drove Mrs. Hamon over stages of her flight. According to these alleged statements, Mrs. Hamon carried a large sum of money—one chauffeur estimated it at $10,000. They said she appeared very nervous.

As a result of these alleged statements, there was activity today among friends of the late millionaire. Where they have been loud in declaring their belief Hamon accidentally shot himself as he declared on his deathbed, today they maintained silence as further details of the alleged statements were awaited.

Mrs. Hamon, according to reports received here, admitted to one of the chauffeurs, E. W. Sailer, of Dallas, Texas, that she shot Hamon.

"He lied to me," she is alleged to have told Sailer.

ITALY PREPARES FOR BATTLE OVER FIUME BOUNDARY

D'Annunzio Declares He Will Die Rather Than Give Up Territory.

(By Camillo Cianfara)
By United Press Leased Wire
Rome.—Civil war over Fiume appeared imminent today.

Bent on enforcing the Rapallo treaty under which Jugo Slavia and Italy determined their boundary lines, Gen. Cavaglia and regular troops began a blockade of Fiume yesterday afternoon.

Equally determined on retention of Fiume and adjacent Dalmatian territory, the fiery Gabriele D'Annunzio declared that if the government's acts were to be considered an ultimatum, the regency of Gungiero would consider itself at war with Italy beginning Dec. 3.

D'Annunzio's passionate oratory has stirred his legionnaires to a determination to die before yielding to the demands of the government. The poet himself has spoken of his fate as assured but one to be met with high courage.

The government today appeared inclined to take no harsh action unless necessary. Despite D'Annunzio's disparaging rejection of negotiations for withdrawing from Arbe and Voglia General Cavaglia hoped an agreement may be reached without resort to fighting. Although this hope prevailed there was noticeable tightening of restrictions on the armed forces.
Sentries were instructed to permit not the slightest infraction of the regulations. All Fiume legionnaires have withdrawn to their own forces the former fraternizing between the two groups has ceased entirely.

Repeal of the Dech-Commins transportation law and prohibition of all European and Asiatic immigration for a period of at least two years are two other measures for which labor will renew its fight when congress convenes, Gompers said.

"Reactionary interests," Gompers said, "are encouraging a world flood of immigration to the United States with the hope of creating a labor surplus which would result in widespread unemployment."

"Hundred of thousands of workers of other countries, ignorant of actual economic conditions in the United States, are being lured to forsake their homes and come to this country.
Pictures of high wages which seem like untold wealth are being painted for these people by groups of interests Anxious to re-establish the balance in industry and deprive the workers of this country of the benefits they have gained through organization. The workers of these other countries thus are being victimized."

"It is unnecessary to point out that the United States is unable to assimilate and make good citizens of im-igrants at the rate they are now arriving."

"Education is the best and quickest means of assimilating immigrants.
To this end labor is preparing to renew in congress its age old fight for the creation of a department of education directed by a secretary who shall be a member of the president's cabinet. Reactionary interests defied a bill to have this department at the last session of congress. Nevertheless, labor plans to demand reconsideration at the coming session."

'WOUNDED' WILSON HAS HEAVY PROGRAM

President Undertakes Many Big Tasks as He Slowly Regains Health.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Wilson described by his secretary as 'casualty' of the great war, today has underway one of the most strenuous programs ever undertaken by a retiring executive. The president has agreed to mediate between the Armenians and aggressive Turkish nationalists and he is outlining the boundaries of Armenia. The determination of the boundaries of Armenia was undertaken by the president as a personal task and the impression here is that he agreed to the mediation task on the same basis. The president is also keeping in close touch with every detail of the Mexican situation which he regards as one that must receive the most careful handling.

In addition the president has nearly finished his last message to congress on which he is doing much work daily.

At the White House, it was said the president is fully capable of carrying on the work he is doing and he is making gains in health.

MANY GUESSES
AT HARDING'S
NEW CABINET

Many Strong Republicans Are Eligible But May Not Accept Appointment.

MAY SIDETRACK LOWDEN

Illinois Governor Slated for Ambassadorship—Weeks
Is a Possibility.

(By David Lawrence)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Washington.—Cabinet rumors fly thick and fast as President-elect Harding approaches Washington. Two sets of opinions are to be encountered here. One is that Mr. Harding not only hasn't committed himself to anybody but hasn't discussed cabinet with anyone in such concrete terms as to warrant any accurate speculation about personnel. The other is that a half dozen of Mr. Harding's friends have been and are canvassing the situation and conducting conferences in the hope of lining up a list of cabinet eligibles.

From the latter group comes all the information. And the last crop of ideas floated here conveys the impression that a plan is afoot to persuade Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois to go abroad to become ambassador to Great Britain instead of becoming secretary of the treasury.

Weeks for Naval Post
The suggestion is interwoven with another concerning former Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts, who has always been mentioned as the probable selection of Mr. Harding for secretary of the navy. Mr. Weeks is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy and, while a member of the senate committee on naval affairs, showed great interest in the development of the navy. Senator Weeks is a banker and was one of the group of republicans who voted for the present federal reserve act. Although he is represented as not anxious for any cabinet post whatsoever, there is a sentiment among his friends that he would be happier in the secretaryship of the treasury than the navy particularly because he is a banker by experience and likes finance.

Heretofore it has been supposed that Gov. Lowden, who won national attention by his business administration in Illinois, would become secretary of the treasury if he wanted it.
Unquestionably Mr. Lowden can have anything in the cabinet he wants. It is said that he himself is not eager to go to Washington or anywhere else in public office and that Mr.
Harding will have to do a great deal of persuading to get Mr. Lowden away from his farm in Illinois.

Root and Knox Considered As for secretary of state, friends of Elihu Root are insistent that he will eventually be Mr. Harding's choice.
It is an open secret that while some of the original Harding men can't see how Mr. Root's views would fit in the Harding program, they admit that Mr. Root has a prestige throughout the United States which would give the Harding cabinet a good start with public opinion. In other words, they admit that the secretary of state will have to be the top-liner of the cabinet this time because of the prominence of the league of nations and foreign policy. Senator Philander C.
Knox of Pennsylvania is of course first choice with most of the Harding men who believe that Root reflects better than any cabinet pick the views of the president-elect on foreign policy.
But Mr. Knox's health is the doubtful factor. Some say he doesn't want cabinet responsibilities and would prefer to stay in the senate. Others say he could be more useful as chairman of the senate foreign relations committee if Senator Lodge were to be taken into the cabinet. Some of those who want Mr. Lodge to go into the cabinet are thinking of the vexed question of leadership in the republican senate. With Senator Tamm, Mr. Lodge, and Mr. Cooper would fall largely on Mr. Lodge.
And there isn't an altogether harmonious feeling in the senate about Mr.
Lodge.

Everybody's good humor was more or less tested during the treaty fight of the last session of congress and Mr. Lodge was between two mill-stones—the "reservationists" and the "irreconcilables." There has been some discussion about new leadership in the hope that the scores of the treaty fight would be healed by an entirely new deal in the senate. Such a plan contemplates the promotion of Senator Lodge to the portfolio of secretary of state though it is insisted by friends of Mr. Lodge that he prefers to remain at the head of the foreign relations committee and steer the new administration's foreign policy through congress.

FOUR PERSONS FACE
CHARGE OF MURDER

By United Press Leased Wire Philadelphia.—Four persons in the apartment of Henry T. Pierce, at the time of his death, will be charged with murder, District Attorney Roland announced today. Roland declared despite the alleged confession of Peter D. Treadway that he alone killed Pierce, the other occupants, who he identified as Marie Rogers, Joseph Moss and "Al Smith," will be similarly charged.

Detectives today entered their efforts in the chase for "Al Smith," now said to be in hiding in some city in

NEED MORE MONEY FOR GERMAN AID

Answer to its appeal will be turned over to Mr. Hoover and placed in the general fund. Money raised in Wisconsin will also be turned over to Mr. Hoover and by him placed at the disposal of the Quakers for exclusive use in Germany.

It is said there are 1,000,000 undernourished and underfed children in Germany and about 2,500,000 in all of central and northern Europe.

While no quota has been set for Outagamie county, it is expected that not less than $12,000 will be raised here. Several counties have already raised their proportionate shares of the state quota of $750,000 and it is believed this county will be in the honor class in the near future.

B. J. Zuehlke is treasurer of the fund in this county and all contributions should be made payable to him. Otto W. Schaefer is secretary.

Among the prominent men on the state committee are Judge E. J. Kearney, Milwaukee, state chairman; Judge A. C. Backus and J. H. U. S. AND CANADA WILL FIGHT BOOZE SMUGGLERS

Detroit.—A joint warfare on rum runners along the Detroit river was planned at a conference here between officials of the United States and Canada.

It was agreed that an officer from either side can hereafter pursue a prohibition violator into the other country providing he turns the case over to an officer of the other country as soon as he enters.

MEET TO CONSIDER RETAIL PROBLEMS

Merchants Propose Rating Bureau and Approve Course in Merchandising.

About 50 merchants attended the dinner and business meeting at the vocational school Wednesday evening under the auspices of the retail division of the chamber of commerce. The merchants decided to install a rating system and also gave approval and promise of support to the merchandising course proposed by the vocational school.

Plans submitted by the committee in charge of the rating bureau were approved by the retailers and steps were taken toward organization. It will be called the Appleton Rating League, and will be operated independently by the merchants.

The purpose of the rating system will be to see that all customers of Appleton stores are given a fair opportunity to enjoy credit at the various establishments. It will be especially helpful to the newcomer who is deservingly of credit. The league will investigate his standing in the city from which he came, with the result that he will be recommended as entitled to credit within a day or so after he arrives, instead of waiting until he establishes his own confidence here.

Salesmanship Course

W. S. Ford, director of the vocational school, explained the salesmanship course which is to be offered after the holidays. He stated that it would consist of six lectures and 12 lessons. The course is recognized as one of the best in the country. A supper will be held at each of the six sessions.

An enrollment of not less than 50 will be required to make the course a success, Mr. Ford stated. The average cost to each person would be about 20 and it was understood that many of the merchants had agreed to share part of the expense for employees who enrolled. Proprietors of stores were urged to interest their clerks in the course, and to enroll themselves.

Open Three Evenings

It was the sense of the meeting that the merchants give their full approval to the course. It was agreed to have Mr. Ford visit as many of the stores as possible and explain the plan to the salespeople.

Considerable discussion ensued on the question of keeping stores open evenings during the Christmas rush. Some wanted to keep open the week previous, some every night of Christmas week, and others only a few nights. A motion was finally passed making it the sense of the meeting that the places of business keep open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday preceding Christmas, and close Christmas eve.

The question of cooperative advertising, which had been considered by the retail division of the chamber of commerce, was not brought up.

GOMPERS OUTLINES LABOR'S PROGRAM

and school teaching," Gompers declared.

"School efficiency is imperative in America," said Gompers.

"The federation," Gompers stated, "is planning a new fight for a constitutional amendment giving congress power to prohibit employment of children. The United States supreme court knocked out such an amendment passed by congress following a vigorous fight by labor. A clause of the revenue law of 1918 imposes a tax of ten per cent on products of child labor in interstate commerce.

"This measure becomes invalid, however, Dec. 10," Gompers said, "and efforts must be made by labor to write it into the new tax law pending the outcome of the fight for the constitutional amendment."

Increased appropriations will be asked for the labor department at which "reactionary interests have been whittling away," for months.

So far, according to Gompers, these interests have succeeded in reducing almost to impotence some of the bureaus of the department while others were completely abolished. Labor will fight to get some real appropriations for the United States employment service and the statistics bureau which monthly published reports showing living costs in all sections of the country.

EXONERATE COMPANY OF BLAME FOR EXPLOSION

By United Press Leased Wire
Stoughton.—Proof that violations of the industrial commission's rules caused the boiler explosion at Stoughton last Wednesday, was insufficient to fix blame upon the Stoughton Marketing company.

This was the verdict of the coroner's jury at the inquest here.

The jury, however, found that the rules had been violated at the plant.

M. A. Edgar, of the industrial commission, who was the last witness on the stand, was cross-examined by Charles S. Deneen, former governor of Illinois. Mr. Deneen declared that the stated causes of the explosion were merely Mr. Edgar's opinions. No absolute proof that the explosion came in consequence of the violation of the rules had been put forward, he said.

Earl Landers of Chicago, was here on business Wednesday.

Arthur Gottfried of Ellington, spent Wednesday here on business.

W. O. Thiede was a business visitor at Milwaukee Wednesday.

Confessions of a Bride

Jim Scarcely Realizes That Deborah Could Suffer in the Tragedy.

Whether Jim Lortimer ever thought tenderly of Deborah Burns, the girl he did not marry, no woman could have guessed. But perhaps many a man could have told. Since Jim had received his discharge from the air service and installed Ann in her beautiful kingdom, he had met his first love only half a dozen times, always with just the proper mixture of familiarity and formality, just the correct balance between his old bachelor privilege of paying her pretty attentions and his new benedict obligation to be merely courteous.

I had caught the first glance which had passed between them when they met after months of separation. It was like an involuntary confession of a man and a maid falling in love at first sight. Neither of them under which was never to be had with his wife. Thus she acted, I suppose, like thousands of wives, who ought to know better.

It did occur to me that those silly pumps and the ridiculous beaute were not the real cause of Ann's obstinacy. She had heard Deb confess to me "I love him! I can't stop loving him!" But she had not heard her husband's name. It was not mentioned. She had no reason to conclude that Deb was speaking of Jim. Deb's exclamation might have referred to any of her acknowledged suitors.

"But a wife's instinct is often reliable in such matters," said myself to myself. "One never can tell when Ann's mind is working and when it is not!"

WOULD PUT TWO YEAR BAN ON IMMIGRATION

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—All immigration would be suspended for two years by a bill submitted to the house immigration committee today by its chairman, Representative Albert Johnson, Washington.

Johnson, who has been making a thorough study of the immigration situation for several months, said that such action is necessary to prevent "hordes of foreigners, many of whom are undesirable, from entering the United States."

NOVEL OVENS TO BE USED IN FEDERAL BAKERY HERE

The Federal System of Bakeries, which operates all over the country, will open its new bakery at the corner of Walnut street and College avenue Friday, Dec. 3. W. S. Mason of Eau Claire will be manager and for the present will do retail baking exclusively. The bakery is equipped with all the latest machinery. Two new revolving ovens heated by gas and each having a capacity of 80 loaves of bread every thirty-five minutes, and a new doughnut machine with an enormous capacity, are being tried out today preparatory to going into use.

Paul O. Nyhus, farm agent, has visited practically every rural school in the county to explain the purpose of the club and the conditions under which membership is accepted. He has secured boys and girls from all parts of the county, meaning that many farms will be raising pure bred cattle for the first time.

Holstein calves are in greatest demand, 23 applications calling for the black and whites. Seven requested Guernsey calves. The calves will be purchased as soon as the remaining five names are secured, which will probably be within four or five days. Many parents have shown eager interest in having their children own and raise pure bred calves. They believe it will be a business training to them as well as financially profitable. The bank loans the money to the children to pay for the calves, with the privilege of repaying the amount when the calf has become a milk producing cow or is sold.

NATIONAL C. OF C. HAS CIVIC EXPERT

Business Men Will Have Counsel of Expert on Housing and Other Matters.

The counsel and services of one of the country's leading civic experts will be at the disposal of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, through the appointment of John Ihlder as manager of the new civic development department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Mr. Ihlder has already taken charge and will perform services for the business men of the country.

Mr. Ihlder resigned as managing director of the Philadelphia Housing association, to assume his new position. He is a housing specialist and takes hold at a time when the housing problem is one of the most important before the country. His practical knowledge of conditions will be helpful in meeting the housing needs.

Mr. Ihlder's work for improvement of housing conditions has taken him to every part of the United States and Canada. He was in England with a party of 16 American housing workers when the war broke out, studying what had been accomplished through governmental agencies and by private initiative in London, Birmingham, Liverpool and other cities, and in the suburbs and villages.

It was while editorial writer of the Evening Press, Grand Rapids, Mich. that Mr. Ihlder first became interested in civic affairs and accepted a position as secretary of the municipal affairs committee of the chamber of commerce. Grand Rapids was one of the first cities in America to take up city planning. Mr. Ihlder has since been instrumental in causing the government to take up housing development.

Walter Grogan of Milwaukee, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Grogan, 776 Meade street.

Toothache?

It Will Not Ache a Second After "E-Z Tooth Filler" is Applied.

"Why, it's gone already!" That's what they all say the instant after a little of "E-Z" Tooth Filler is put into the cavity. Of course it's gone, and no more thought than the tooth ought to be pulled out. It has to go, for "E-Z" Tooth Filler seals up the cavity, excludes the air, soothes the inflamed nerve and leaves no cause for an ache. It's not merely a temporary relief, either, but a real filling for the tooth, which will last for weeks or months, until you get ready to have a permanent filling put in. Chew on it same as on other teeth. Anyone can use it. Takes but a moment to apply. "E-Z" Tooth Filler is for sale at your drugstore at 25c a bottle, or sent direct upon receipt of price by the Chas. A. Bertram Drug Co., 3471 Bignon Ave., Chicago.

MISRULED CITY IS FAULT OF VOTERS

Dr. D. O. Kinsman Delivers Instructive Address on City Government.

"There are three departments in our city government; they are law making, legislative; the law enforcing, executive; and law applying or judicial department," said Dr. D. O. Kinsman in his lecture on "City Government" before the civics department of The Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon at the Vocational school.

"The legislative department consists of two aldermen from each ward and the mayor. The word 'alderman' is derived from 'older man' and is handed down to us from the time when the older men of the city did the governing. The clans or tribes settled down in a particular place and the young men agreed to let the older and wiser men handle their affairs.

"In the city council the mayor presides and the city clerk acts as the secretary. The meetings are open to the public. Ordinances are presented in much the same form as motions, and are generally in writing. Any member may ask for a record of the vote.

"The charter of the city is in reality a constitution with delegated powers. The municipal government has extensive powers over bridges, streets, sidewalks, sewers, and lights. The city council is responsible for the public buildings, parks and playgrounds. It has the right to establish public markets, coal yards, and wood yards.

"The peace and good order of the city are under the jurisdiction of the city council as well as anything which encroaches upon the health or comfort of the citizens. Undue noises, excess smoke and unsightly things come under this group.

"The question of the vagrants and beggars belongs to the city council. The care of the poor and dependent falls upon the city fathers. The zoning of the city is entirely within their jurisdiction. It is their right and duty to establish fire protection and also to determine of what materials buildings should be constructed.

"Laying of taxes is one of the duties of the council.

"We as the people have the perfect right, if we wish, to frame an ordinance, lay it before the council and ask them to act upon it. If it is defeated we can secure a referendum and put it up to the voters of the city.

"We have exactly what we permit to exist and we, the voters, have the power in our hands to improve it."

"The executive department consists of the mayor, and the judicial department is composed of one or more justices of the peace."

APPLETON TOURISTS WAITING FOR BAGGAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glaser, who left for the south several weeks ago, where they expect to spend the winter, are at present at Laurel, Miss., where they are detained because of failure of their baggage to arrive. They see Mr. and Mrs. Alex. May, formerly of Appleton, almost daily. Mr. May is engaged in the lumbering business and Mr. Glaser has accompanied him on several cruising trips.

Laurel has a population of 10,000 and has about eight Negroes to every white person. It is located in a lumber district and has three large saw mills that are operated at full capacity. Prices differ very little from those of Wisconsin and the people appear prosperous. Mr. Glaser says that the weather of late has been disagreeable in that part of the country and that he has suffered quite a little from the cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Glaser expect to leave in a few days for New Orleans where they will make a prolonged stay.

Firemen Have Phonograph.

Music hath its charms, and in the opinion of the men at No. 1 fire station, it is effective in whiling away tedious hours. They have therefore acquired a phonograph which is supplying daily concerts. The collection of records is somewhat small and the suggestion has been made that people having records they are tired of might add them to the station supply.

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN, CHILDREN WARNED

Safety Director Warns Children to Exercise Caution Near Trains.

"Over 12,000 children, under the age of 15 years, are killed or injured every year," said E. C. Richards, chairman of the central safety committee, and general claim agent for the Chicago Northwestern railroad. "Most of these accidents are due to carelessness and thoughtlessness on the part of the children."

The statement was made Wednesday afternoon at a safety first meeting at Lawrence Memorial Chapel for the school children of the lower grades.

"The thing that we want to impress upon you this afternoon is that you should take care of your life; it is the only one you have, and once you lose it, you can never regain it."

The speaker said that 5,000 people are killed and 15,000 injured every year by trespassing on the railroad tracks.

"We have a government at Washington, and one of the things it does is to publish every year a bulletin showing the number of injuries and deaths in the United States. It is that bulletin which says that 12,000 children are hurt or killed every year."

Mr. Richards warned the children to keep off the tracks. He told of an accident which happened in Appleton two years ago. A boy was riding along Outagamie street on a bicycle. He saw the train coming, but thought it would make the crossing ahead of the train. He failed and was seriously injured.

"Whenever you come near a railroad track, always stop, look and listen. If you see the train coming, wait till it goes by, don't try to beat it. You may think you are saving a few seconds but you are taking a chance of losing your life," the speaker said.

The speaker warned the boys about going to the yards and "clipping" freight cars. He said the boys liked to catch the cars and ride for a block, and then flip another car going in the opposite direction. He said that sooner or later the boys would get hurt, and then they would have to go through life minus one arm or one leg. A boy who has lost a limb realizes what he is missing when he watches other boys playing and having a good time. Mr. Richards said.

Stereoscopic slides showed the many ways one may be injured. Several pictures taken of people walking on tracks in Appleton were shown.

The speaker said that he noticed the laws were being enforced here, a movement which he heartily approved.

FIND MEXICO A GOOD FIELD FOR BUSINESS

Mexico is a wide-open business field for American firms, with the outlook better than it ever has been before. This condition is reported by the American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico, according to a bulletin received by the Appleton Chamber of Commerce.

The Mexican body avers that the principal hindrance to trade between the two countries has been the lack of understanding on the part of the American manufacturer of the stability of the Mexican house which is its customer. Firms here have been prone to demand cash in advance, whereas a close inquiry into the mercantile and political situation would have caused them to grant open accounts and 90 days. England, France, Spain and Germany have realized this and have built up a strong trade by giving extraordinary terms.

More than 100 American houses have begun business in Mexico in the last two years, the bulletin states. Some have branch offices, others trade through houses handling American representatives, and still others have salesmen with headquarters in Mexico city.

WANT MORE RECRUITS IN WESTERN BADGER UNIT

Several hundred young men from Wisconsin have enlisted in the 59th United States Infantry stationed at Camp Lewis, Wash., according to information received by the postoffice from the recruiting officer of the unit. This regiment is allocated to the state of Wisconsin for recruiting purposes. It is thus possible to place all men from this state together.

The army is appealing for more recruits for the 59th, to fill up several hundred vacancies. Educational opportunities, promotions to officers' ranks and army life as a profession are offered as inducements. Enlistments will be received at the postoffice.

Supremacy

An article occupies a position of supremacy when it is obviously so superior to anything else of its kind, that by general agreement, it holds a commanding position.

THE New Edison

"The Phonograph with a soul" is an example of supremacy, for it is the only Phonograph which literally RE-CREATES all forms of music so perfectly, so complete, so lifelike that the RECREATION cannot be distinguished from the original, when both are heard in direct comparison.

This has been proved by over 4000 direct comparison Tone-Tests in nearly every City in the United States.

The New Edison is the only Phonograph which is capable of sustaining the test of direct comparison with living artists. No "talking machine" would dare to make such a test in public.

Hear the New Edison, before you select your Phonograph.

SAVE THE GERMAN CHILDREN
Although the war ended more than two years ago, we are still having "drives" for funds for various purposes, just now particularly for the starving children of Europe. A few days ago in another appeal to America's generosity and for her merciful aid Herbert Hoover said:

"Three and a half million children call to the heart and conscience of America for their daily supplies, not available in their own countries, that are vital to their survival and to the rebuilding of their physical well being.
"Our resources will be exhausted in January.
"We must not step aside and permit the spectacle of death in the form of hunger and cold to haunt these helpless ones this winter, yet we can not continue without help.
"This is a charge on the American heart, and America can not fail in her solicitude for these little ones.
"Twenty-three million dollars must be raised without delay."

And in this appeal the starving children of Germany are not to be forgotten: $15,000,000 of the $28,000,000 is to be used outside of Germany directly by The American Relief Administration and $8,000,000 by the Society of Friends (Quakers) in the relief of the needy children of Germany.

The State of Wisconsin, among others, is charged with the duty of raising funds for German children exclusively, this information having been spread broadcast throughout the state in response to the following telegram received from Mr. Hoover at the beginning of the campaign.
"Child feeding in Germany is very serious.
All funds collected in Wisconsin will be used exclusively for undernourished and starving children of Germany. We have food until January 1st and are asking for help. (Signed) Herbert Hoover."

However, no barrier is placed in the way of those who desire to contribute to the general fund only. Contributions and pledges can be left with the local committee for the general fund by so stating in the application blank, or money sent to The Literary Digest in answer to its appeal will be turned over to Mr.
Hoover and placed in the general fund which will be pro-rated among the various needy European countries.

Of the $750,000 quota for the state of Wisconsin, Outagamie County's share is not large and the full amount should be readily subscribed, but every citizen must do his or her share in this great benevolent work. Let there be no prejudice. If any does exist let it be fo-gotten in the name of humanity.

It matters not what creed; it matters not what nationality; it matters not how strong your tendencies and prejudices may have been during the war; it matters not if our country is still technically at war with Germany, when the cries of suffering, starving, ragged and helpless children are heard, America must harken to their needs. Let every citizen remember that it is little children, the innocent victims of a great war that are growing up with diseased bodies and weak minds. We cannot close our eyes to the hollow faces and shrunken little bodies, $600,000 of whom, it is estimated, are now struggling for mere existence in Germany alone.

For the moment let us forget and in the words of Abraham Lincoln, let there be "malice toward none and charity for all."

THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE IN ACTION
During the recent campaign in Wisconsin Wm. J. Morgan, candidate for attorney general charged that the Non-Partisan league, among other socialistic ventures was engaged in unsound banking in North Dakota. He was supported in this charge by the attorney general of North Dakota, who came to this state to warn its people against the practices and power of the Non-Partisan league.
Within the last week or two seventeen state banks of North Dakota have closed their doors. Although it is announced in each case that the suspension is temporary, it remains to be seen whether this is correct or not. Seventeen banks in a sparsely settled state like North Dakota do not close their doors, even temporarily where sound banking principles govern.

When the Non-Partisan league came into power in North Dakota it created what is known as the Bank of North Dakota. The bank did not accept commercial deposits, but a law was passed by the league which compelled county and city officials to deposit all public funds in this institution. These funds were in part passed on to state banks which worked with the Non-Partisan league.

The people objected, quite properly, to this law and they succeeded in repealing it. In the meantime the banks had loaned these deposits extensively to their customers, principally farmers. A writer from North Dakota says Townley, head of the league, told the farmers to hold their wheat for a price of three dollars, to pay no interest to the state banks and tell business men they owed to "whistle" for their money. This was an easy way to demonstrate the beauties of Non-Partisan league theories and to convince the farmers that the league was their benevolent overseer.

Now comes the withdrawal of public funds from the Bank of North Dakota, which is in turn forced to call its deposits in the state banks. As a consequence the banks were left with insufficient reserves and the credit fabric founded on dictum has snapped. The farmers are left in a sorry plight by this collapse of the Non-Partisan league banking system, for credit is shaken to its foundations throughout the state.

At this rate it ought not take the people of North Dakota much longer to realize the extent of the folly upon which they have embarked in their socialistic experiments. Perhaps Townley may be able to mesmerize some of his following yet awhile, but the election in Minnesota and the trend of events in North Dakota indicate that he is losing his hold and that in due time this section of the country will be cleared up of its foolishness. We ought to thank ourselves that the Non-Partisan league made no greater progress than it did in Wisconsin, for we now see the timeliness as well as the truthfulness of the warnings we received against it.

BREAK THE DAM
Relief of the present agricultural and industrial situation in this country can be had to a large degree by the opening of foreign markets to the great surplus of American farm and factory products. We are aware that this is a mere truism and states nothing new. The facts are well known to the large interests of the country, and particularly to the banks, which have suffered severely from the backing up process which has taken place in distribution.

The public at large does not know the real seriousness of the situation. The warehouses of New York and all Atlantic ports are bursting with American products accumulated or sold for export.
Owing to the hopelessness of foreign credit and the excessive depreciation of foreign exchange these wares cannot be moved. They represent products of the soil as well as manufactured products.
Eastern banks have lost heavily in loaning money on acceptances covering goods for export, for these goods cannot be sold and have depreciated heavily in net value. Some large shipments from Canada to duty-free British dependencies are held in New York and cannot be realized on, for the reason that if sold in this country the duty would wipe them out, and they cannot be marketed abroad. Committees of bankers are already being formed to handle the affairs of exporters caught in this manner, and heavy losses are inevitable both to the banks and the exporters.

The problem is how to meet the credit requirements of foreign countries which represent a ready market for American products. If they possessed the necessary purchasing power the goods blockade at American ports would be instantly relieved and we should have a strong market for our wares at satisfactory prices.
The farmer and the manufacturer would in turn promptly feel the stimulating effect that this release would afford, and we should be a long way back upon the track of wholesome prosperity. Statistically wheat is in a strong position, yet farmers are forced to sell at a distinct sacrifice and at a price far below the cost of production. The same is true of other farm products of which there exists a surplus for export. The low price is caused principally because foreign markets are not available. In manufactured lines it is the same story.

We must therefore create an export market. This we can do only by restoring the purchasing power of Europe. Indirectly the restoration of the European market would improve the South American and other foreign markets. The extension of long-term credits to foreign countries for at least a part of their purchase money seems to be the only manner in which our export trade can be revived and our surplus production disposed of.
How that is to be done is a problem which our financial interests in conjunction with the government must solve. It is one of the first things of domestic concern to which the new administration should and doubtless will address itself. The dam at the Atlantic seaboard which is backing up the waters of American production must be broken.

CHILDREN AND COFFEE
Most of the prejudice which exists against coffee as a beverage is based upon nothing more than morbid fancy. People of a dyspeptic or neurotic temperament are fond of assuming that coffee must be bad because it is so good, and accordingly denying themselves the pleasure of drinking it.
Coffee is a strong stimulant to the cerebrum, the heart and the kidneys. There are conditions in which such stimulation may be desirable and beneficial, or at least not injurious; and there are other conditions in which there can be no doubt that such stimulation is harmful.

Among frequent conditions in which coffee may be injurious may be mentioned certain cases of insomnia, certain cases of exophthalmic goitre or of hypertension, and association with other diseases. I am speaking now of adults.
Children should never be given coffee. There is no conceivable condition in childhood in which the regular or habitual use of coffee as a beverage can be justified. There are many objections. In children the brain and nervous system are more predominant than in adults; the child's nervous system weighs more and is more active in proportion with body weight than is the adult's. That explains why a child will have a spasm or convulsion with the onset of an illness which would be ushered in with only a chill or chilliness in an adult.

Certainly no coffee or tea, since both beverages produce the same effects should be given any child under the age of sixteen years.
Coffee and tea drinking in childhood are prolific factors of peevishness, nervousness, bed-wetting, and in my own opinion, of malnutrition and defective growth.
Fresh milk is the child's beverage. After the age of sixteen years a small quantity of cocoa or chocolate may be used to flavor the milk, though cocoa and chocolate have practically the same effect as tea and coffee, and can scarcely be deemed beneficial or essential for a child of any age. The addition of a small quantity of cocoa or chocolate to a considerable quantity of fresh (never canned, condensed or dry milk substitutes) often makes the beverage appeal to a child who may refuse to drink milk hot or cold or otherwise flavored. In that case the co-cocoa or chocolate may be justifiable.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Foaming at the Mouth
My boy was bitten by a dog about ten days ago.
Should the dog be killed? I have been told that if the dog should go mad the boy will foam at the mouth. The dog is one with an ugly disposition.
(H. E. M.)

ANSWER—In every case of dog bite, the safe and sane procedure to follow is this: See that the dog is confined for a period of two weeks under the care of a veterinary physician. The dog's owner should provide the expense of this, of course, and if the owner refuses, then it is time to take legal action.
But if the owner is fair he will pay the veterinary's fee, and when the veterinary reports to you at the end of the two weeks that the dog shows no sign of sickness, forget it. If the veterinary is unable to give such a clear report, then the dog should be killed and the head promptly sent to a pathologist or health board laboratory for examination for rabies. As a general rule it is more likely that the person who gave you the superstitious advice will foam at the mouth than that the dog or the boy will.

Salt Lake City Smoke.

By Frederic J. Haskin
Salt Lake City, Utah.—Do you dislike smoke? Do you resent the intimate way in which it intrudes into your eyes, ears, throat, and nose?
If so, you can help the rest of suffering mankind, which shares this antipathy, by adopting a few simple precautions. You can see that your household heating plant is in good working condition, and that the person who operates it has some reason for thinking he can do so.
Many and mysterious have been the investigations made of smoke.
Numerous devices have been recommended for combating it. But it remains for Salt Lake City to prove that the cause of most smoke is mere carelessness, due to inefficient heating plants and ignorant operators. It came to pass like this:
Salt Lake City has always had a peculiarly irritating smoke problem.
For six or seven months in the year the Utah capital is an ideal place of residence. It is over four thousand feet high; its climate is dry and balmy, and it has some of the most attractive home sites to be found in this country.
But in the late fall and winter when the air becomes chilly and artificial heat necessary, the city sheds a good deal of its charm. For then it is enveloped in a dense fog of smoke, which blots out whole portions of the landscape, ruins the dispositions of industrious housewives, and almost obscures the bright Utah sun.
Yet Salt Lake is not a great industrial city like Pittsburgh and Cleveland, where one expects to see smoke.
It manufactures various things, of course, and it is the largest smelting center of the West, but neither the smelting nor the smelting accounts for the smoke. The cause lies in the beautiful, protecting hills.
These cut the city off from draft, so that when the smoke rises from its chimneys there is no wind to blow it away.
Naturally, this state of affairs, has been a great worry to such an enterprising town as this, so last fall it called upon the Government for scientific assistance. The Government sent Mr. Osborn Monnett, Fuel Engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines, to make an investigation by a cooperative arrangement among the city, the University of Utah and the municipality. Mr. Monnett spent several months in Salt Lake City, making all sorts of tests and experiments, sometimes on the ground, sometimes in an aeroplane and often on the threshold of local heating plants.
A Windless City
The results of this investigation, while peculiar to the special problem of Salt Lake City—namely, its lack of wind—should also be of great interest to all other cities irritated by smoke problems. For they prove conclusively, as has been said, that smoke is largely due to carelessness and faulty equipment in the operation of individual heating plants.
Mr. Monnett's first act was to test the local fuel supply, which many janitors in the city indignantly asserted was astonishingly inefficient.
He was therefore surprised to find it of higher quality than that used by most western cities, and certainly not to blame for the smoke.
The next step was to analyze the smoke itself and discover its various ingredients.
"The most harmful ingredient of smoke pollution," declared Mr. Monnett, "is soot which results from the burning of coal in large industrial plants, domestic stoves and furnaces.
It is a mixture of carbon, tarry products of coal, and a little sulphur oxide and sulphur. Taken in with the air we breathe, it lodges in the throat and nasal passages, and the finer particles get into the lungs. The presence of tar and sulphur acids makes it an active irritant and predisposes the breather to throat trouble and pneumonia. It is this soot which also soils the clothing and injures vegetation."
Curiously enough, Mr. Monnett found that the most harmful kind of smoke was caused not by the large industrial or high-pressure plants, but by the smaller household stoves and furnaces.
"Smoke from high-pressure plants," he says, "tends to be high in ash and contains little tarry matter. Smoke from low-pressure plants and domestic stoves is the harmful kind, being higher in tarry acids and oily products of combustion."
"The study of the effect of smoke on health is still in the experimental stage," he adds, "but it is agreed that the long-continued breathing of smoke-polluted air lowers physical vitality."
"It has also been proved that vege-

WARN MOTORISTS TO WATCH LIGHTS

Industrial Commission Predicts Damages for Light Law Violations.

(Special to Post-Crescent) Madison—The Industrial Commission warns motorists not to park cars on streets and highways without displaying dimmed front lights and tail lights. This is required by law, except on streets which are so well lighted as to make a car clearly discernible for a distance of at least 500 feet.

Failure to comply with this requirement of the law is prima facie evidence of negligence should an accident occur. Several accidents have been reported to the industrial commission which were due to the fact that cars were left standing without any lights on streets which were not well lighted. Several suits charging negligence against the car owner are pending.

The commission also warns motorists against the danger of driving with only one headlight. This danger is in-

WANT SHARPER TEETH IN MULBERGER LAW

By United Press Leased Wire Madison—The Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league will wage a fight before the coming legislature for the placing of sharper teeth in the Mulberger act, which created the state prohibition enforcement program.

The league asks that fourteen changes be made in the law, including the insertion of a clause defining intoxicating liquor at one-half of one percent by volume.

The league would also increase the powers of district attorneys and the prohibition commissioner and make a prison sentence compulsory for a second offense.

Increased if the only headlight which is in condition is the right headlight. The law requires two headlights and motorists driving with one headlight are liable to heavy damages if they should be involved in an accident. The commission suggests that all motorists should carry extra lamps just as they do spare tires. If they do not to do so and it is the left headlight which goes out they should at the very least change the lamps so that the good light will be on the left side.

SAFETY MAGAZINE AGAIN APPEARING

Wisconsin Safety Review Is Published by Industrial Commission.

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison.—The Industrial Commission has revised the publication of the Wisconsin Safety Review, a magazine upon accident prevention. This publication was issued regularly from June 1918, to June 1919, but was then discontinued because R. E. Solensten, the editor, left the service of the industrial commission to become assistant secretary of the National Safety Council. F. W. Huels heretofore with the railroad commission, has now been employed by the industrial commission.

For Corns Little or Big - Use "Gets-It"

Stops Corn Pain Instantly and Removes Them Completely.

Whether your "pet" is on top or between the toes, no matter how big or how small or how "tender" three drops of "Gets-It" will lift you right out of your misery.

The Only Way to Cure a Corn is to Remove it, with "Gets-It".
You will laugh to see how quickly your corn lets go its grip, how it curls right up and dies as you can lift it off with your fingers. It's folly and nonsense to pare and trim a corn trying to ease its pain when "Gets-It" will easily rid you of it entirely.
"Gets-It" is sold at all drug stores and costs but a trifle. Your money back on request. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

ROCK COUNTY FARMERS TAKE SIDES IN FIGHT

Janesville.—The county board adopted a resolution abolishing the office of the county agricultural agent after the close of the term of his contract, June 31, 1921. The claim is made that the agent was active in farm bureau matters and antagonized Beloit members by refusing to open a branch office at that city. Only one Beloit member of the board, Simon Smith thirty-four years a member, voted for his retention. He stated that he voted for it because it cost each farmer 7 cents a year and more practical help could be secured from him than from the state university.
H. T. Glasco has been agent since 1918. He will appeal to the new board which will be organized after the spring election.

son as publicity deputy and among other duties will edit the Wisconsin Safety Review. It is intended to publish this magazine monthly and to distribute it among foremen in industrial plants.

Accident Analysis
The number now issued contains an article by State Chief Engineer Mack, on "Some Random Thoughts on Safety." Mr. Mack believes that the greatest progress in accident prevention can be made through appealing to reason rather than to fear. This number also contains an analysis of the 1919 accident experience of Wisconsin, showing the causes of accidents and their costs. A map is published which shows that compensable accidents occurred in every county in Wisconsin, with the largest number in the industrial centers in 1919.

There is also a discussion of the eye accidents in 1919 and the methods through which they could have been prevented. The wearing of goggles is emphasized, and it is pointed out that it is not enough that an employer tell his men that they should wear goggles, but that he must also see that proper goggles are provided and that the men actually wear them.

HUNTER SHOOTS MAN AND FLEES IN WOODS

Ashland.—Targar Egdahl of Port Wing was brought to a hospital here with a bullet wound in his hand and one in his back. He and a companion were hunting in the woods between Port Wing and Iron River when the accident happened. Egdahl was evidently taken for a deer by some hunter whom they came upon suddenly. For the hunter fired, and when he saw he had shot a man, ran like mad through the woods. The bullet struck the trigger of the gun Egdahl was carrying, grazed his hand, and glanced off into his back. He says the trigger of his gun is the only thing that saved him from instant death.

SHORT SESSION IS BURKE'S DESIRE

Green Bay Senator Wants to Hold State Legislature to 90 Day Meeting.

Milwaukee.—Senator Timothy Burke, Green Bay, dean among the state's lawmakers, announced on Tuesday that he will inaugurate a program for a ninety day session of the legislature.

As the first step in this direction, he will suggest that all appropriation bills be prepared and ready for introduction as soon as the legislature is organized for work. Introduction of such bills should follow meetings of the board of public affairs, he says. Senator Burke believes that arrangements can be made to have a voluntary committee of both houses go to Madison a few days in December to get appropriation measures prepared.

Appropriations Cause Delay
Experience has taught that appropriations are responsible for more delay than any other matters that come to Madison, so if the Burke plan for an early start on the financial program goes through there is ground for the belief that the legislature can wind up its work in much less time than the usual session of six months. At any rate, members of both houses will probably be willing to try to bring about this result.

NO DANGER TO BANKS IN RYAN'S DEALINGS

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Allan A. Ryan has a substantial equity in the securities taken over by New York banks to guard their loans to him, according to Samuel Untermyer who today agreed to act as Ryan's attorney. Untermyer, in accepting the retainer, under certain conditions, said he did not doubt the good will of the banks but believed they were over secured.

Untermyer declared it was Ryan's duty to believe in the good will of the banks until something occurred to convince him otherwise, but added he believed the arrangement whereby the institutions took over Ryan's holdings in various industrial share "to conserve them," should be modified.

house committee to meet with it Thursday afternoon to discuss the farm situation.

At the meeting, it is expected public hearings will be arranged to discuss legislation for relieving the present conditions.

It is likely Secretary of the Treasury Houston will be invited to appear before the two committees to suggest means of extending government aid to farmers through provisions for granting credit.

Other witnesses will be representatives of farmers' organizations from Nebraska, Kansas, the Dakotas and other states.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS WILL GUARD RACINE FACTORY

By United Press Leased Wire
Racine, Wis.—Governor Philipp today issued orders to Sheriff Lutter of Racine county to appoint fifty deputies to protect the property of the Hamilton Beach Manufacturing company which is being operated although there has been a strike there for four months. An outbreak of strike sympathizers Monday evening in which rocks were thrown, caused alarm among the police and they, fearing an outbreak and destruction of property, notified Gov Philipp who issued instructions to the sheriff to have deputies about the factory. The company issued orders today to close at 4 o'clock so that employees could get away before darkness.

CANNOT AGREE ON RAILROAD BOARDS

Otherhoods Request Re-establishment of Old Arbitration Bodies.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Unable to reach an agreement with railroad owners regarding appointment of boards to interpret national agreements entered into between the government and railroad employees shortly before the roads were returned to their owners, leaders of rail unions appeared before the United States railroad labor board today in an effort to have old boards re-established.

Headed by Bert M. Jewell, president of the Railroad Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, the labor chiefs planned to ask that national adjustment boards, 1, 2 and 3, now passing on grievances of old agreements, be employed to interpret the new agreements. "The new national agreements were made following many months of conferences and detailed work between union and government officials. Under the Esch-Cummins law, the agreements were made binding on the railroad owners. They were to be interpreted by boards agreed upon by both sides. At the office of the labor board it was said members would be unable to make any statement until the matter had been considered. Whether this board has the power to take any action is problematical. The agreements do not affect wages, only hours and conditions and certain overtime work."

FRENCH NATION RESUMES RELATIONS WITH VATICAN

By United Press Leased Wire
Paris.—Resumption of diplomatic relations with the vatican was hailed jubilantly today by the Catholic press. Other papers refrained from comment except to say that the action of yesterday was a foregone conclusion. There was lively speculation today as to who will be the first ambassador to the vatican since relations were broken off in 1905. Charles Benoit, minister to The Hague, a prominent Catholic and an authority on vatican affairs, was mentioned as the probable choice.

ESCAPED MURDERER IS SHOT BY SHERIFF

Memphis.—Clyde A. Hamilton who shot and killed Jailer George Reeves, of Memphis, and escaped with two fellow prisoners, was shot to death today at Winona, Miss.

His companions, E. E. Kelly and A. F. Shaw, were captured and have admitted their identity.

The sheriff of Winona shot Hamilton when the three bandits were cornered in a freight car at Winona. The other two surrendered without resistance.

"PITTSBURG PLUS" IS HURTING SHIPBUILDERS

Superior.—Alleging that the "Pittsburg plus" system of basing steel prices has depreciated its property, assessed at $500,000, the Superior Shipbuilding company started action before the board of review to have the assessment reduced. The business of the company is building and repairing boats, but the plant is practically closed down, which it claims is due to the prohibitive price of steel which prevents competing with concerns nearer Pittsburg. The new freight rate has increased the steel price here

CHARGE HIDEOUS PLOT TO MURDER RICH GEORGIAN

State Authorities Refuse to Discuss Case Against Alleged Slayings.

By United Press Leased Wire
Macon, Ga.—Secrecy today shrouded the state's investigation of the alleged "murder cabal" which resulted in the death by poisoning June 1 of Fred D. Shepard, millionaire peach king.

Authorities indicated they believed a veritable borgia plot existed to poison Shepard and seize his estate. The poison—bichloride of mercury—is believed to have been slipped into the drinks of whiskey he was accustomed to take in the evening. Then the alleged conspirators, detectives will endeavor to prove, watched him sicken and die. Four persons are under arrest today: Mrs. Pauline Elmer, wife of Shepard at the time of his death; her sister, Mrs. Ione Henry; her son, by another marriage, Ernest Hopson and Mrs. Annie E. Cutts.

Attorneys for the prisoners hope to get some idea of the prosecution's evidence Dec. 7 when arguments will be heard in court on their demand for bail.

Dr. Eugene Elmer, husband of Mrs. Elmer, one of the prisoners, returned to his home in Jacksonville today. At the proper time, he said, he will lay bare the "whole sordid story."

"They"—referring to the family of Mrs. George N. Crandall, the dead fruit grower's sister—"are fighting to hold the possessions in California. They care nothing for the pitance in

KAUKAUNA EDITOR GETS INFORMATION

Railroad Commission Says Law Does Not Require Publication of Notices.

Madison.—The Kaukauna Times, in a recent issue, published an "Open Letter to the Railroad Commission," commenting on the fact that the Commission from time to time sends notices of hearings, etc., to the papers of the state for publication as news, with the statement that no fund is available for payment for such notices. The Times decries the practice of the state of "free space grafting" and declares if the statutes make no provision for payment for such notices that it is time the matter was remedied and that the Commission is the proper body to take the initiative.

C. D. Schaeffer, secretary of the Commission, in replying to the Editor of The Times, agrees with him that the newspapers of the state should not be made victims of free space grafting by the state nor should the burden be imposed upon any newspaper of publishing official notices free of charge when such notices should by rights be paid for.

However, he calls attention to the fact that the notices referred to were not required by law, nor would it be deemed desirable that they should be published as legal notices usually are. They were notices of public hearings before the Commission or of applications made by utilities for changes of rates or service, which the Commission feels would be of general interest to the patrons of the utilities served by the newspaper to which they are sent, and which the Commission therefore considers as news. The Commission is not required by law to issue any such notice but has made a practice to do so in order that the patrons of the various utilities might be informed of pending hearings, etc., so they could appear, if they desired and give testimony on the case.

Working Together for Good

At a county fair years ago, a flamboyant sign advertised: "The Strangest Sight in the World!" Those who paid to see the marvel found ten farmers pulling TOGETHER on a rope! . . . It's different today. Now thousands of farmers everywhere are pulling together. We're working together for good—our own good, to be sure, but the consumer's as well; for fair prices for both producer and consumer and for better marketing facilities.

In a series of advertisements in this newspaper we shall tell you of methods by which farmers' cooperative associations everywhere are profiting by better marketing facilities. For this space and publicity, credit is due to THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, whose staff of experts are studying and in its columns reporting cooperative accomplishments all over America. And right at the start let us say that you ought to be reading that publication regularly. ALLEGED FIREBUG HELD

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Frank Kratchko was held by police today in connection with investigation into the origin of a fire which caused $200,000 damage, destroying the E. A. Muuns Calsamine company here. Then night watchman at the factory identified the prisoner, claiming he covered him with a revolver and would not allow him to turn in the alarm when he discovered the blaze. A statement which police said was made by Kratchko that he was to have been "paid for firing the building," led to examination of officials of the company.
Two other suspects were also held.

FORM COUNCIL FOR STUDY OF RELIGION

Churches Combine to Give Adequate Instruction in Religious Subjects.

An Appleton Council of Religious Education was formed Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. at a meeting of about 25 representatives of churches, the Y. M. C. A., parent-teachers' associations, Woman's club, Red Cross and teachers. A program for the moral and religious education of Appleton, submitted by Prof. Earl Emme, head of the religious education department of Lawrence college, was adopted. George F. Werner, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., presided at the meeting and appointed a nominating committee consisting of H. B. Frame, chairman; Dr. I. B. Wood, the Rev. J. L. Menzner, William Saiberlich, Mrs. N. H. Brokaw and Prof. Earl Emme.

J. G. Rosebush was named chairman of the committee on constitution and by-laws. Other members of this committee are the Rev. George Stickney, vice-chairman, F. J. Harwood, Mrs. Mary J. Wells, Mrs. D. O. Kinsman and Prof. Earl Emme.

The need for a definite working plan by which the churches of Appleton might combine in giving religious instruction has been keenly felt by the leaders in this work for some time. Plans were discussed at a meeting about a year ago. Last spring when Dr. A. A. Trettin of Toledo, Ohio, discussed the Toledo plan, the church leaders went on record as de-

J. F. BLOOMER AGAIN BREAKS HIS KNEE CAP

J. F. Bloomer, 1125 Oklahoma street in the St. Elizabeth hospital, following an accident on Saturday which resulted in the breaking of his knee cap. Mr. Bloomer, who is a member of the Appleton Construction company, was overseeing work on the construction of concrete pavement on the Hilbert road and was stepping into an automobile when he slipped and fell.

Mr. Bloomer had just recovered from an accident which occurred two months ago, in which he had the same knee cap broken.

siring more adequate organization for furthering the work.

Prof. Earl Emme, who has had considerable practical experience with the various plans, and particularly the Evanston plan, was asked to formulate a program.

Fundamental Principles

"There are three fundamental principles in child psychology that must be the basis of all education," declared Mr. Emme. "Early impressions are the most lasting; only constant influences have power to change the organism and sufficient time must be given."

"The chief factors bearing on the child life are the home, which is dropping out of direct religious influence, the public schools, the church and the community. Religious instruction is required by state law from our public schools. The unscientific religious teacher is as great a menace as the scientist without religion."

"The community must supplement our public schools and church schools, and other agencies if adequate moral and fundamental religious instruction is not given. The purpose of the Appleton Council of Religious Education is to stimulate and develop in the community greater interest and respect for moral and religious principles of conduct; to assist the religious forces of Appleton by training leadership, giving educational standards and focusing greater attention upon youth; to assist in developing a complete system of education by giving the proper emphasis to moral and religious instruction for our schools cannot teach fundamentals of morality and religion in American life and our churches have inadequate educational standards and do not give sufficient time; and to help create pride and interest in community welfare."

It is planned to prepare a uniform questionnaire which will be sent to all the churches. Church people will have a chance to express their opinion on what kind of a course they wish to study. Then classes will be formed and teachers secured. The course will probably be given for the twelve weeks between Jan. 1 and Easter.

The council will have another meeting at 7:30 o'clock Dec. 15 at the Y. M. C. A.

SHERMAN SPEAKS AT FARM MEETING

Appleton Banker Is Guest at Fond du Lac Holstein Meeting.

John J. Sherman, president of the Citizens National bank, was one of the principal speakers at a banquet of the Fond du Lac County Holstein Breeders association at Fond du Lac Tuesday evening. The gathering was held in the armory and was attended by about 400 farmers and their wives. A dancing party followed.

Mr. Sherman's subject was "The Relation of the Farmer and the Banker." He named many ways in which the two were cooperating, notably in helping the farmer to acquire pure bred cattle and sell them. He told of the marketing service by which farmers may list anything they wish to sell with their local bank and this information is reported to all parts of the state by the bank. Potato, corn and

SOCIAL AGENCIES COUNCIL APPROVED

Chamber of Commerce to Direct Social Work to Prevent Duplication.

A council of social agencies for Appleton was heartily approved by directors of the chamber of commerce at the meeting Tuesday evening in the Venetian room of the Sherman house. Chairman John Hettinger of the community welfare committee was instructed to work out a plan for creating such a body.

The Outagamie Red Cross chapter requested the chamber to consider the idea. It was found in the recent big meeting held this year. Our farmers could do even better than that if they would make the attempt."

Mr. Sherman also mentioned the success of the farm bureau in Fond du Lac county. It has 1,200 members and takes the place of all other organizations that have proven unsatisfactory. It handles matters on a business basis and helps the farmer with his economic problems. The best thing he heard about it was the utter absence of politics.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up
*****
This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick relief. Easy and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

community survey that some civic organizations unwittingly overlapped in their work, that there were some duplications of effort and that there might possibly be organizations working at cross purposes. To avoid this, it was proposed to call representatives of all organizations together, each to tell what its work should be.

The Red Cross felt that another civic executive would have to be created to carry out the plan unless the chamber of commerce could take it up through one of its committees. The directors approved the move for more efficient community welfare work and placed the responsibility for executing the plan on Mr. Hettinger's committee. A meeting of members of civic and fraternal bodies will probably be called in the near future.

The referendum on local transportation submitted by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States was also taken up. The directors voted to send a ballot sheet to every member of the chamber. The result of the vote will guide the board in submitting the ballot to the national body.

Mr. Hettinger presented the report of the community welfare committee, telling what was done at its meeting last Monday regarding city planning. Expressions of condolence were advanced by the board for the families of two members who died within the past two weeks, Dr. H. W. Abraham and Herman Erb.

A. W. Liese, station agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company, and Peter Nabbefeldt returned Tuesday from Amberg, where they had been deer hunting. They returned empty handed.

APARTMENT HOUSE BURNS; FIVE DEAD

Opera Singer Loses Life When New York Apartment House Is Destroyed.

By United Press Leased Wire
New York—Five lives were lost today in a fire which swept thru an apartment house here. Flames leaped from cellar to roof thru an air shaft, trapping the victims.

Police said the dead were:
Mrs. Roswell Reed, opera singer;
Miss Marjorie Leacock, actress; Dr.
F. M. Potter; Mrs. Jennie Jenkins; one unidentified.

Miss Annette Bracy, who discovered the fire, said she heard a crackling sound, and opening the door, found the hall a mass of flames. Many of those who escaped had to dash thru a sheet of flame. The death list would have been higher had it not been for

YOUNG MARRIED PEOPLE OF CONGO CHURCH MEET

H. L. Poel was elected president and E. A. Walther secretary of an organization of young married people of the First Congregational church at a preliminary meeting Wednesday evening. Tentative plans were outlined for weekly meetings, the first one to be at 7:15 o'clock Wednesday evening of next week. The purpose of the meetings will be to take up a course of study and to provide social enjoyment.

adjoining house. A number of persons, all other exits blocked by fire, escaped by this means.

Mrs. Reed was well known as a concert singer. Miss Leacock recently arrived from England to act in motion pictures. Dr. Potter was a veterinarian and trained animals at the New York Hippodrome.

The bodies of Mrs. Reed and Mrs.
Jenkins, her sister, were found in each others arms. They evidently had tried to reach the door communicating with the next building thru which many escaped but had fallen when within a few steps of it.

ANIMAL MARKET IS BROKEN UP BY WAR

Circus Owners Find It Hard to Obtain Attractions for Menageries.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—"Man eating" lions, tigers and other wild animals will be rare sights at circuses next summer, according to circus owners attending the showmen's annual convention here today.

Due to the war the wild animal market has collapsed and what few animals are obtainable in foreign countries cannot be shipped here because of the lack of tonnage, circus men said.

"In place of them, we will increase the number of performing elephants, clowns and put on snake charmers," said John Hopper, of the John Robinson circus, Peru, Ind.

According to Hopper, circus men usually obtained lions and tigers from the Hagenback brothers' menagerie in Germany.

Since the armistice, he said, the menagerie has been broken up and wild animals have to be picked up wherever obtainable. Owing to lack of shipping space between European countries and the United States very few of these animals are brought here.

Circus men say there is a great scarcity in "thrillers" and are searching the country for "dare devils" to give circus crowds some excitement for their money.

Hopper declared airplanes would likely be used by many circuses next year to furnish the "hair-raiser."
The season just closed, Hopper said, was the most prosperous in history for circuses.

"People like circuses just as well today as they did when they were young," he said.

"It is a great offset to bolshevism.
It cheers the grownups and brings back pleasant youthful memories. A bolshevik doesn't want pleasant memories, else he couldn't be what he is."

WILSON WANTS TO STAY IN NATION'S CAPITAL

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—President Wilson prefers to remain in Washington after the expiration of his term, it was indicated at the White House today.

The president, it was said, plans to write a history of the world war and the peace conference. He expects to be strong enough to undertake the work shortly after March 4 and he wants to stay in the capital where he will be close to official records.

Definite arrangements as to where the president will live here have not been made, it was said.

J. P. Tumulty, the president's secretary, said today he had definitely decided to remain in Washington after March 4.

SMUGGLING? NO! SAYS LEONORA

MRS. DOROTHY K. VACKERS

New York—It's just dreadful to be so ignorant of the queer quirks of the law, thinks pretty Leonora Hughes, dancing partner of Maurice, who ran counter to certain laws relating to the customs and tariffs when she landed from England and wanted to bring in $100,000 worth of jewels and clothes. "I wanted mamma to see my pretty things. I wasn't smuggling," said she. "I should have told them I lived at the Hotel Savoy, England—I really do, and I'm returning to Europe soon, you know—but I merely told them I was a citizen of the United States and they held my pretty things.

It's too bad I didn't know more about the law. It's all a mistake."

PRESENT PROGRAM FOR FARM RELIEF

House and Senate Agricultural Committees Meet to Discuss Problem.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—A program of legislation to relieve present conditions among farmers was outlined to the house and senate agriculture committees meeting in joint session today by J. A. Shroyer, of the Nebraska farmers' union.

Shroyer suggested as remedies: Equal credit and extended credit for farmers.
Arrangements for immediate export of farm products.

Restoration of the federal farm loan board whose activities have been suspended because of an attack on the constitutionality of the farm loan act.
Abolition of grain gambling.

Shroyer told the committee farmers in Nebraska, met a week ago to discuss whether they should continue to buy coal or should burn their corn instead. He said farmers were getting but ten cents on a bushel of corn over the expense of raising and harvesting.

Senator Edge, New Jersey, today came out in opposition to direct government aid to farmers through loans, saying the government should do nothing paternalistic in the present situation.

RIOT BREAKS OUT IN EQUITY MEET

Rumpus Starts on Convention

Are Discussed.

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee—A near riot broke loose in the conference of the Wisconsin state union of the American Society of Equity here this afternoon over the league's finances.

After D. O. Mahoney, of Viroqua, questioned some of the assets of the equity, President J. N. Tittemore went into a history of the union during which he declared that J. Weller Long had asked that a received be appointed. Long in the audience passed the "lie" and a near riot broke out, some of the members demanding that he be put out of the hall.

After quiet was restored, Secretary-was approved.

With this fight over the finances

The south bound passenger train of the Ashland division of the Northwestern road which arrives at Appleton Junction about 4 a. m., was derailed near Ironwood Tuesday night by a defective rail. Every coach, including a sleeper, is said to have left the rails and all remained upright. The sleeper, however, was at an angle of 45 degrees. No one was injured. The track was so badly torn up that a temporary track was built around the damaged portion. Trains were operated over the division Wednesday but those reaching Appleton were unable to make schedule time.

MARGUERITE D'ALVAREZ

New York—Art and talent, along musical lines, are looking up to Lady Bountiful—Madame Marguerite D'Alvarez. For this Peruvian contralto, now sojourning in America, is devoted to her ideal of discovering genius, developing talent and encouraging the musically minded. In her stateroom, on the way to the United States, Madame D'Alvarez heard singing in the steerage below. She investigated and found the possessor of the voice to be a young Irish girl, coming to America as a domestic servant. And today this young songster—Lydia Fletcher—is under the wing of Madame D'Alvarez. She is to have voice training.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Schlitz Brothers Company, Vogt's Drug Store, Union Pharmacy have been appointed agents for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

P. V. LAWSON DIES AT MENASHA HOME

Well Known Historian of Fox River Valley Dies of Heart Failure.

Menasha—Publius V. Lawson, leading historical writer of early days in the Fox River valley, died suddenly at his home here. He had not been sick. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Lawson was one of the most prominent and interesting men of this section of the state. He wrote a number of authoritative books on Wisconsin history and associated subjects, including a "Geology of Wisconsin," a life of the first settler of Wisconsin, Charles E. Langlade, a history of the Fox River valley and works on archaeology. He was a member of the Wisconsin Archaeological society, a member of the State Historical society, and for years a member of the board of curators of the latter society. A few years ago he attracted statewide attention by challenging the practice of the State Historical society delving into history of the entire Mississippi valley instead of confining its appropriation to work in the history of Wisconsin. He carried this contention to the legislature and finally through the state courts, the Supreme court, holding that the society need not limit itself to Wisconsin, as the history of the state is so closely associated with the history of the Mississippi valley.

Mr. Lawson was a member of the assembly during the special session of the legislature in 1918. For three terms he was mayor of Menasha. His business interests were mainly in the Menasha Wood Split Pulley company, of which he was president. He was a brother-in-law of Justice J. C. Kern of the state Supreme court.

AUTO RUNS INTO GREEN BAY RIVER

Four Appleton Young Men Have Narrow Escape From Death Sunday.

Four Appleton young men narrowly escaped losing their lives at the end of Pine street at Green Bay at an early hour Sunday morning, when their auto ran into the river.

The details of the accident are being suppressed, but as nearly as can be learned the party visited Green Bay for the purpose of calling on a former Appleton young man and while driving about town met with the accident which, it is alleged, was due to the absence of a barricade on a street that was being improved.

The automobile remained in an upright position and came to a stop in water that was within four or five inches of the top. The occupants were all rescued after considerable difficulty.

An Appleton resident, who visited Green Bay Sunday afternoon, observed the police department pulling the automobile out of the water with the aid of a team and a block and tackle.

Mayor's Veto Kills Plan To Build New Fire House

Hawes Declares City Will Be Served Best by Centralized Fire Department.

Mayor J. A. Hawes vetoed the resolution authorizing the award of the contract for building a new fire department house in the Fourth ward at the meeting of the common council at the city hall Wednesday evening. Alderman McGillan moved to override the veto but the resolution was lost by one vote.

In his veto the mayor said: "The fire department of the city of Appleton has been completely motorized at large expense for the purpose of abandoning the slow horse drawn apparatus and introducing the most modern method to reach fires in any part of the city in the shortest time, and to pump water to fires from the fire hydrants under domestic pressure, eliminating the necessity and avoiding the danger of raising direct fire pressure at the water works pumping station for ordinary fires, safeguarding the pumps, mains and plumbing throughout the city, and relieving the city of the expense of building and maintaining auxiliary fire department houses in various outlying parts of the city of Appleton. All in One Group

"Fire department house No. 3 was discontinued by act of common council several months ago and the company formerly located there is now being successfully operated at department No. 1. Many of our citizens believe that fire department No. 2 should also be closed and the entire Appleton fire department centralized at fire department No. 1 because experience and records of the fire department show that fires in all parts of the city are now promptly reached by the department with motorized apparatus and it will obtain maximum efficiency with greatest economy by grouping all firemen in two shifts at a central house, one-half of whom will be on duty at all times and under the personal direction of the fire chief or his assistant.

"Building a new fire department house at this time and locating it on lot 8, block 12, Edward West's plat in the extreme southwestern part of the Fourth ward is mostly local in its purpose, establishing special privilege in that particular locality, without giving equal service to the southeastern part of that ward.

"Further, the hose truck proposed to be used in the new fire house is insufficient when taking water from fire hydrants under domestic pressure. This situation involves the use of direct pressure, and is contrary to present practice, or the addition of chemical tank, or the purchase of another motorized pumping apparatus of maximum efficiency all of which is unnecessary.

"I believe this expenditure of public funds for new fire department house, equipment, operation and maintenance, is not justified at this time. I hereby respectfully veto the resolution of the common council at a special meeting held Nov. 22, 1920, authorizing the letting of contract for building a fire department house on lot 8, block 12, Edward West's plat in the Fourth ward of Appleton, Wis."

Alderman Laabs, a member of the committee on streets and bridges, recommended that the renting of the buildings at Alicia Park be discontinued and that the buildings with the exception of the stone portion of the cabin which can be used for a service station, be removed. The matter was referred to the committee of the whole to view the premises. Alderman McGillan suggested that the committee view at the same time a tract of seven acres in West's park in the Fourth ward which can be purchased for park purposes.

The committee on streets and bridges recommended that the city purchase three snow plows, a flanger and a tractor which will be used in keeping the streets free from snow during the coming winter. Petitions for a sidewalk on a certain portion of Bruce street and the cinderling of part of Hancock street were referred to the committee on streets and bridges.

A communication from the Eagle Manufacturing company relative to police protection was placed in file. A license for a dance at Ellis' club on Dec. 10 was granted. Bills amounting to $16,634.73 were allowed.

BLAMES NEGLECT FOR DEATH TOLL

Railroad Safety Head Urges Teaching of Safety in Grade Schools.

"The object of these meetings," said W. C. Richards, chairman of the central safety committee, and general claim agent for the Chicago Northwestern railway company, "is to teach the younger generation to be careful, to teach them the value of safety first at all times."

R. C. Richards spoke Wednesday evening in the Memorial Chapel to about 500 adults and school children of the higher grades. He said that further objects of the meetings were to teach the boy to protect his neighbor by doing up his work right, to teach him the value of guards and screens in the factories.

"It is the little accidents that count," he said. "The big accidents that you read about in the newspapers add only a little to the number of injuries and deaths that occur yearly. The child must be taught that it is the little things that we do in our lives that make success and happiness or failure and sorrow."

"We must teach the boy that if he loses a leg or arm, he will be handicapped thru life. Not only that, but the rest of his family will also suffer thru his carelessness."

"If a boy or girl can be taught to be careful, practically the only risk that boy or girl runs of getting hurt is thru the carelessness of someone else. Therefore, everyone should be taught to observe safety rules."

"The act that perhaps causes more accidents to school children is trespassing upon the railroad tracks. The United States is the only country in the world that does not punish people who walk on the tracks. Wisconsin, however, is awakening, and is beginning to enforce laws which prevail. I am glad to hear that even in Appleton, steps are being taken to keep people from walking on the tracks.

"About 5,000 people are killed every year in this manner."

The speaker said that safety first should be taught in every school. He believed that it was just as important to the future generation as the study of spelling or arithmetic.

Law Disregarded

He said that a law in Wisconsin required the teaching of that subject for at least a half hour a day, but it is regarded as a dead letter almost everywhere.

"St. Louis regards the law differently," said Mr. Richards. "Over a year ago they installed the subject in all of their public and parochial schools. The number of accidents to school children decreased in that year from 35 to 15, or nearly 60 per cent."

"Teachers who have taught it say that the subject is the most helpful and interesting of any that was ever taught in school."

Slides were shown to show how some accidents occurred, and most of them thru carelessness. Out of 73 employees of the Chicago Northwestern who figured in accidents, 35 were killed by thoughtlessly crossing railroad tracks. Other accidents were due to running hand cars too close to each other, and still others were hurt by hopping off cars and stepping on rails.

A moving picture showed how men were hurt by kicking the draw bars into place. About 165 men lost feet or legs thru this form of carelessness.

Other pictures showed how men were killed by stumbling and falling off, by getting hit by bridges, or by cars on adjoining tracks. Others are killed by explosions, because they failed to keep enough water in the boiler of their locomotives.

Mr. Richards said that if people would always stop to look and listen there would be a great decrease in the number of accidents every year. Automobiles which are struck by trains would, if set up, make a solid line 17 miles long.

"It is only by working together that we can hope to accomplish anything. Old hands should tell the green hands of the dangers and the foreman should put the safety spirit in all his men."

FRATERNITY GETS NATIONAL CHARTER

Tau Alpha Sigma to Be Incorporated Into Phi Kappa Tau This Week.

Tau Alpha Sigma, a local fraternity at Lawrence college, will become Mu chapter of Phi Kappa Tau, national fraternity, Friday. The petition of the local organization was granted about four weeks ago.

Tau Alpha Sigma came into existence at Lawrence about a year ago when twelve students successfully petitioned the faculty of the institution for recognition as a local fraternity. The enrollment of the college had increased so rapidly after the war that need was felt for a new fraternity. Tau Alpha Sigma with twelve charter members was incorporated under the laws of the state in February. At the same time the men moved into the house at 549 Alton street, formerly occupied by the Theta Phi fraternity.

Steps were taken immediately toward nationalization. W. E. Basley, former head of the commerce department at Lawrence college, who was one of the charter members of Tau Alpha Sigma, was also a charter member of Phi Kappa Tau, and used his influence in behalf of the local organization.

Phi Kappa Tau was organized at Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, in 1908. Chapters have been established chiefly in the middlewest. It is recognized as one of the best of the younger national fraternities.

Mu chapter will be installed by the following degree team: G. C. Banks, secretary of the graduate council, Theta chapter; T. H. Wright, secretary of the resident council, Theta chapter; L. H. Knopf, Zeta chapter; W. L. Basley, Ohio; R. K. Bowers, grand secretary, Epsilon; and W. M. Herberger, Zeta chapter.

The installation services will begin on Friday, at the fraternity house and continue through Saturday forenoon. The installation banquet will be given at Hotel Appleton Saturday noon. The members will entertain friends at a semi-formal dance at the Elk Club Saturday evening.

Members who will be initiated into Phi Kappa Tau are: Graeme O'Geran, Ludington, Mich.; Lloyd Morris, John Purves, Appleton; Winfield Alexander, Kewanee; Harvey Peterson, Racine; John Faulks, Robert Stone, Waupaca; Robert Berkelman, Duluth, Minn.; Norman Grandy, Bruce; Paul Ungret, Washburn; Howard Lewis, New London; Joseph Mallory, Berlin; William Edmonds, Palmyra; George Gerrits, Little Chute; Max Schardt, Gilmanton; Earl Blank, Sparta; and Harold Warrick, Maunton. Faculty members are Prof. H. Weston and L. A. Arens.

The granting of the charter is largely through the untiring efforts of Graeme O'Geran, one of the charter members of Tau Alpha Sigma, who received his M. A. degree at Lawrence college last June. Mr. O'Geran is located in Appleton at the present time with the National Alliance Lyceum Bureau of the Berea Chautauque System with headquarters at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Phi Kappa Tau is the second national fraternity to be installed at Lawrence college, the other being Sigma Phi Epsilon. Lloyd Morris of Appleton is the president of the organization. Other officers are Joseph Mallory, Berlin, vice-president; John Faulks, Waupaca, treasurer; Paul Ungret, Washburn, secretary. Five local men are patrons of the fraternity, W. T. Hughes, L. B. Wood D. D., C. B. Foreman, L. O. Wiesman and E. E. Dunn. The following students are pledges: Charles Stimpson, Bert Kazar, Vivian Paulson, George Bishop, Willard Pace, and George Benson.

Rich in Fruit and each fruit sealed in glass

Jiffy-Jell desserts are real-fruit dainties, yet they cost a trifle. The condensed fruit juice—fruit essence—comes in liquid form in bottles. The flavors are not in dry form—unsealed—as in old-time jells.

The fruit is plentiful. We crush, for instance, half a pineapple to flavor one dessert. Yet a package serves six in mold form, or 12 if you whip the jell. And all for 15 cents.

Jiffy-Jell comes ready-sweetened. It comes acidulated with real fruit acid. Simply add boiling water, as directed on package, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool. For tart salad jell use lime-fruit flavor. Use mint jell to serve with meats.

In millions of homes this new-type dessert has displaced the old. Learn what it means to you—this quick real-fruit delight.

WRESTLER WANTS TO AID LAWRENCE

Kansan Will Come Here if He Can Be Assured a Number of Bouts.

Appleton wrestling fans can satisfy their desire to see high class matches and at the same time assist in developing a championship wrestling team at Lawrence college by offering inducements to a professional wrestler now in Emporia, Kansas. To change his headquarters to Appleton, according to Coach E. R. McChesney of Lawrence.

This wrestler has signified his willingness to come here and train the college grapplers providing he can be assured of a sufficient number of matches in this territory to keep the wolf from his door.

In a recent letter to McChesney he issued the following challenge:

"I will meet any man at my weight, which is 135 to 140 pounds, for a five hundred dollar side bet and winner take all of the wrestling share of the gate receipts, or my opponent can name the side bet. I will also meet any man at 150 pounds for a five hundred dollar guarantee and a side bet of two hundred and fifty dollars. In either proposition it will be necessary to have two round trip tickets between Emporia and Appleton."

McChesney said that this wrestler is one of the best in the middle west and would be an asset to the city and college. Interested men can secure further information by applying to Mr. McChesney.

Perhaps Your Daily Work Makes You Ill

Many occupations put a heavy strain on the kidneys. The jarring and jolting of trains and street cars, work in strained, unnatural positions, exposure to sudden changes of temperature, the fumes of turpentine, acids, etc., all tend to bring on kidney weakness. If you have daily backache, headaches, rheumatic pains, dizzy spells, with annoying kidney irregularities, don't wait; use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's are praised by workers the world over. Ask your neighbor.

An Appleton Case
Oliver G. Feavel, 772 Second Ave., says: "I met with an accident, which laid me up and affected my kidneys and bladder. My back ached and when passing the kidney secretions there was a burning sensation. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills made me well enough to go to work feeling fine. I have never since been troubled."

INTERLAKE FIVE TO PLAY TEACHERS

Game With Oshkosh Normal School Is Scheduled for Friday Evening Here.

The first big Interlake basketball game outside of the industrial league will take place at eight o'clock Friday evening at the armory when the mill players meet the Oshkosh Normal five. Both teams are in fighting trim and an interesting contest is anticipated.

The Interlake lineup will include: McCourt, Istock, Flotow and Potter, forwards; Gregory and Gardner, centers; Kessler, Day, Welty and Van Roy, guards.

A lively game was staged at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening in which the Interlakes met defeat at the hands of the Kimberly-Clarks by a score of 14 to 9.

The Interlake schedule this winter is to include many strong teams of the state. The managers are trying to book games with Marquette university, University of Wisconsin and others, but the schedule has not been completed. Most of the games will be played at the armory.

ROWLANDS WANTS TO FIGHT O'DOWD

Tough Middleweight Sure to Give Erstwhile Middle Champ a Real Fight.

Philadelphia—There have been numerous boxers who never reached the top nor anywhere near the pinnacle of their respective classes, but have proved tough nuts to crack for champions and near-champions. These fighters usually are mentioned as "trial horses," and there is one such tough guy in the middleweight division in Philadelphia.

Several years ago Len Rowlands came here from Milwaukee. He was unknown as a fighter, but in every one of his bouts in this city and other points, after he had made Philadelphia his home, Len proved himself a rugged battler. Rowlands really is a trial horse for the best of the punchers of his poundage.

New York scribers were boosting a young middleweight, just out of the amateurs, as a coming successor to the throne now occupied by Johnny Wilson. Eddie O'Hara, the Gothamite had been putting all of his opponents to sleep in short order. O'Hara was matched with Len recently and Len not only stood off the young knockerout for ten rounds but he also knocked Eddie down twice.

Rowlands is a tough opponent for the best of the middleweights, and at the same time Len is dangerous until the final sound of the gong. Among the star boxers who Rowlands has stood off are Mike Gibbons, Tom Gibbons, Johnny Griffiths, Harry Greb, Jack Britton, Jack McCarron, Jack Dillon, Bryan Downey and Jeff Smith.

Bobby Gunnis, local sportsman, who is managing Rowlands, has been out with a deft for a bout with Mike O'Dowd, and "that Irishman will have his hands full, too," says Robert.

Careless Hunter
Hunters trespassing on the George Haef's farm, town of Grand Chute, caused the loss of a valuable two year old hunter owned by Mr. Haef's. ## BUSHEY WINDS UP TRIP WITH VICTORY

Business College Team Wins Great Battle From Niagara Mills Team.

(By Fred Bushey)
The Bushey basketball team returned Wednesday afternoon from its northern trip, having played the final game at Niagara Tuesday night defeating the crack Kimberly-Clark team, 20 to 17 after forty minutes of the hardest playing of the entire trip. The Niagara team has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Seacor, the Peeping star of Fond du Lac, and Munson of Racine. Junior Taylor of this city and Keyes of the University of Wisconsin are again in the Niagara line up, as is also Nabbenfeld of Niagara.

The Bushey squad was leading by seven points the first half, but was unable to hold the Kimberly-Clark squad during the early part of the second period. In ten minutes of play the score was tied, then Niagara forged three points ahead. A deafening roar from the largest crowd that ever saw a game in Niagara prevented the referee's whistle being heard when he called a foul on one over-zealous home player, and he was obliged to grab the ball away from the players to indicate that a foul had been called. Kenney missed the free throw, but Loose raced in and meeting the ball on the run, he threw it into the basket, bringing the score up to within one point of a tie. During the next two minutes the ball was under the Bushey goal, with the entire Niagara team fighting to prevent a score, when Loose again proved himself master of the situation by shoving the ball through the hoop with two Niagara men doing their utmost to hold him.

At this stage of the contest, with the Bushey team leading by a single point the crowd was again brought to its feet when Taylor shot the ball directly at the Niagara goal, but after apparently entering the basket it jumped out and Niagara had lost its last opportunity to win, as Kenney then put the game on ice for his team by making a pretty shot from a difficult angle, leaving the score at 20 to 17. It was a real basketball town, and the winners were applauded for what they had accomplished. It is doubtful

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You—Drink More Water

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

GIPP STILL HAS CHANCE TO DEFEAT GRIM REAPER

By United Press, Leased Wire
South Bend, Ind.—Fighting grimly as he has fought in the games which have made him one of the leading football players in the country, George Gipp, Notre Dame gridiron hero, today was still struggling with death. Last reports from the hospital where Gipp is ill with pneumonia, declared there was a bare chance for recovery. Gipp's mother is constantly at his bedside.

Telegrams expressing hope for a speedy recovery have been received from football stars in the east and west.

FOUR SCHOOLS MAY BE DROPPED FROM "BIG TEN"

Urbana, Ill.—Four members of the Big Ten conference will be dropped next year, according to athletic officials at Illinois University here. The four schools, which it is said, would be eliminated are Northwestern, Indiana, Purdue and Iowa.

Members of the big ten will meet in Chicago Saturday to plan for next year and it is believed the move to drop these four schools will be made then.

Jeff Willing To Risk His Jaw For Honor, Not Money

By United Press, Leased Wire
Lawrence, Kans.—"Yes, I signed a little paper," Jess Willard, erstwhile heavyweight champion, grinned today, confirming an announcement by Tex Rickard that he had been matched to fight the winner of the Jack Dempsey-Bill Brennan bout Dec. 14. Jess thinks his fight will be with Dempsey—the man who jured loose his crown. "I am going back into the ring to regain the championship," Willard confided, "and defend it."

There was a smile on the former titleholder's face and a happy and determined note in his voice as he said it. There was no doubt from his attitude that he meant business.

As to terms, Jess didn't just seem to know what was in it financially for him. I just told Tex to go ahead and fix it up, Willard said. Then he stopped for a good laugh and explained:

"I see some of the papers have me dead busted." Apparently he wasn't seriously worried over money matters. That he was going to have a chance for a "come back" seemed to be giving him genuine satisfaction.

The Kansas fighter said he "wanted to even up the Toledo affair" with Jack Dempsey by demonstration that he was the best man.

Jess revealed that he is already doing a little light training in his gymnasium down here on the farm. And he plans to take on heavier work soon.

"I don't know who I'll have for trainers," Jess continued.

"I haven't had time hardly to think it over. But I'll probably get two or three of the boys to come here and help me."

Asked what Mrs. Willard thought of his plans to "come back," Jess beamed:

"Oh, she's backing me to the limit. She's always with me in whatever I do. We never have any trouble at home."

Although Jess owns a farm here, he has been "dabbling in oil some," since the Toledo appearance with "good" results, he said. He treated reports that he was busted, and was returning to the ring merely because he needed the money, as a joke.

"It's the championship I'm after," he concluded.

"And I mean to get it."

whether there is a more sportsman-ship lot of fans in the state than are to be found in Niagara. Under the leadership of E. T. Prevaille the K.C. team is bound to become a real factor in Wisconsin basketball circles.

Notes of the Trip
The Crystal Falls gymnasium, a part of the new high school building recently erected, is one of the finest in that state, and it was packed to the doors the night Busheys played there. One of the fine gymnasiums played in during the trip is at Laona. The hotel in that village is an exceptionally good one. Nearly the entire village, including the hotel is owned by the Connor Lumber Co., and that company is doing everything possible to build up the village.

Houghton, the home of the College of Mines is a picturesque city, located in a valley with hills in every direction, and practically no other industry than copper mining. Some of the mines are from two to two and a half miles in depth. One shaft extends directly under the heart of the city, as

NEW RED SOX CHIEF PLANS BIG "SHAKE-UP"

Boston, Mass.—The Boston Red Sox are due for a big shakeup before the 1921 season opens, it became known on Tuesday, and with many familiar faces missing from the rolls next spring much new blood is expected to be added during the months the "winter league" is in session.

Hugh Duffy, newly named manager of the team, and Harry Frazee, the owner, will get together this week to lay tentative plans for 1921. Duffy has plans to carry out deals which will add new players to help out the club. It is rumored the Red Sox will be parties to a three cornered trade with New York and Detroit. The Red Sox particularly need a second baseman, a center fielder, and two pitchers.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Something's going to happen here in town Saturday, December 4 that's going to please a lot of people

We are decorating our store nice and cheery with a lot of holly and red berries and other whatcha may callems, and then, on Saturday, the 4th, when we're all ready, we're going to invite you all over to see what we've got for you for Christmas Gifts.

This is for the ladies as well as the men, because there are a lot of ladies in town who want to buy a gift for a man friend of theirs, or maybe a husband, and when they see the swell silk shirts and mufflers and silk hose and ties and house coats and bathrobes and nice Xmas jewelry and a lot of other nice things for men—Oh boy, they'll be glad they came, and the men—well, they too know good things when they see them.

Gee, there are going to be a lot of men in this old town tickled to death on Christmas morning when they see the swell present they bought, at our store.

Be sure and come Saturday, December 4th, or any day from then until Xmas. We'll have the door mat out with "Welcome" on it, and we'll meet you at the door and try our best to please you.

URGE BADGER FOR HARDING CABINET

Former University of Wisconsin Grid Star Has Made Splendid Record.

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Madison. — Friends of Albert A. Johnson, former University of Wis-consin football and track star, are urging his appointment as Secretary of Agriculture in President Harding's cabinet.

Johnson, a native of McFarland, Dane county, first gained fame when a member of the track and football teams in the University 15 or 18 years ago. After his graduation in 1905 he became affiliated with an agricul-tural college in Georgia where his work attracted such attention that he was brought back to Wisconsin and built up the LaCrosse County School of Agriculture. Again his success at-tracted attention and he was called to Milwaukee and established and built up the Milwaukee County School of Agriculture at Wauwatosa which attracted attention all over the country and five or six years ago he was selected as director of the New York State School of Applied Agriculture at Long Island.

Al Johnson, as he is remembered at Wisconsin, is a powerful man. He held the strength record at the Uni-versity for years and much of his suc-cess since leaving school is said to have been due to the fact that he de-clared he was so strong he required a lot of work. He is an indefatigable worker who insists on solving any problem that comes before him. He is recognized in his profession not on-ly in Wisconsin, New York and the United States, but in Europe as well and President-Elect Harding will be urged to name Johnson as the new Secretary of Agriculture.

SHARP CLIMB IN PRICE OF WHEATHeavy Buying for Export and Short Coverings Send Quotations Up.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Wheat prices staged a strong come-back on the Chicago board of trade today. Gains of from eight to ten cents were made in quotations on wheat for future delivery. Other grains made slight gains in sympathy. The rise in wheat prices was due to considerable buying by houses with export connections and by short coverings. No great quantity of wheat was offered for sale. Buying of corn and oats also was general. Provisions were higher.

December wheat was up 2½¢ at the opening, $1.65, and advanced 4½¢ in later trading. March wheat opened at $1.59½, up 4¢, and gained an additional 4¢ before the close.

December corn was up ¼¢ at the opening, 69¢, and later advanced 1½¢. May corn up ¼¢ at the opening, 74½¢, subsequently advanced an additional 1½¢.

December oats opened up half at 45¢, and later gained 1¢. May oats up ½¢ at the opening, 49½¢, and later advanced ¾¢.

CONGRESS TO AID
HARDING PROGRAMExpect Inquiry in Organization and Methods of Executive Branches.

Washington, D. C.—First aid to Republican cabinet members in carrying out the party pledges for more business-like and economical administration of government departments will be rendered by the short session of Congress.

A congressional inquiry will be authorized into the present organization and methods of the executive branches.

The findings of the investigators will serve as a guide for the Harding cabinet members, pointing out what can be done in each department and bureau to eliminate duplication, delays and overlapping.

Each cabinet member will have ready to hand an outline of what he may do without waiting for any further legislation, to give Republican efficiency a running start.

The investigation will also furnish the data necessary for the overhauling of executive machinery for which specific legislation must be enacted. This, it is expected, will be taken up at a special session of the new Congress, probably early in April. A budget bill is slated to put national finances on a more sound and business-like footing.

BIG BUSINESSMAN
IS LITTLE FELLOWNew Head of Goodrich Transit Company Has Worked Way Up.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—H. W. Thorp, new president of the Goodrich Transit company, was the biggest little figure in shipping circles on the Great Lakes today.

Thorp's purchase of the Goodrich Transit company's interests comprised the largest passenger line deal ever made on the lakes and placed him at the head of a $1,250,000 concern, with control of the oldest and biggest package freight business on Lake Michigan. He also established financial connections with the Manitowoc Shipbuilding company.

Physically Thorp is barely big enough to peep over the top of his office desk and classed by weight he probably would be placed with the bantams.

Thorp's face has not yet shown the wear and tear usually accompanying the rise from obscurity to presidential of a concern. His eyes still glint with battle light and his hair retains its color.

Thorp's pugnacious qualities are portrayed in an undershot chin and broad shoulders. He gives the impression of the sharp resourceful type. Thirty-eight years ago Thorp entered the employment of the business he now controls. He was then a clerk at Manitowoc, Mich. Later he was secretary to A. W. Goodrich then general manager of the business, and finally elected vice-president.

USED BROTHER'S NAME TO GET MONEY; ARRESTED

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Paul, Minn.—William Stiche, 29, was under arrest here today on information from Kansas City police.

Stiche, police said, wired Eli Ben-nick at Kansas City for $100 and signed the name of Eli's brother, Joseph. He received the money.

Yesterday he sent another telegram asking for another $1000. It happened that Joseph was visiting Eli this time. When Stiche applied for the money, he was arrested.

Washington, D. C.—The Chicago and Northwestern railroad today applied to the interstate commerce commission for authority to issue $10,000,000 in equipment trust certificates for the purchase of sixty locomotives and 1,400 cars.

WOULD PUT TAX ON ALL GRAIN FUTURESSenator Capper Has Plan to Prevent Gambling on Grain Market.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—Prevention of gambling in grain futures through a prohibitive tax on all speculative deals in grain, is to be sought by Senator Capper, Kansas, as the chief item in a program of legislation which he intends to propose soon after congress meets next week.

Capper, who arrived in Washington today, said the anti-grain gambling bill probably will provide for a tax of ten per cent of the value of the goods involved on all speculative deals in grain.

This would particularly prohibit such deals, he said.

Other items in Capper's program include re-establishment of the war finance corporation to provide credit for home manufacturers and farmers; provision for credit to foreign nations to stimulate foreign trade; strict governmental economy and reduction of the vast army of government clerks.

He also plans to urge immediate return to the United States of all American soldiers now on foreign soil.

STEAMER IS AGROUND
NEAR THE SOO CANAL

By United Press Leased Wire
Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—The steamer Alva C. Dinkey of the Pittsburgh fleet, was aground on detour reef today. The steamer became locked late last night. The lighter Newman of Detroit is enroute here to release her. The Dinkey is loaded with stone and was enroute from Caldeite to Chicago. The extent of the damage to the vessel is not known.

$150,000 In Indiana
By United Press Leased Wire
Indianapolis—Fire did $150,000 damage to the plant of the Indiana Packing company at Greenwood, near here today. Several thousand cases of canned goods were threatened and some of them were destroyed. The flames were brought under control with the aid of fire fighting apparatus from Indianapolis.

The modern health crusade, a competitive system of hygiene, includes about 4,000,000 children in the United States.

Sawdust treated with certain acids has been found to be good food for cattle when mixed with other fodder.

Don't forget to oil your household machinery!

A drop of oil on the carpet sweeper that seems to have lost its "pop" may help a lot.

From door locks to electric washing machines, the everyday things that are subjected to friction, need oil.

However, when oiling an electric motor don't follow the line of reasoning that if a little is good more is better, for it isn't. Too much heats the motor and does as much damage as good.

Menu for Tomorrow
BREAKFAST—Halves of grapefruit, hot waffles, syrup, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Stuffed onions, brown bread and butter, rolled oats, cookies, tea.

DINNER—Cream of asparagus soup, loin of lamb, mashed potatoes, string beans, banana salad, crackers and cheese, coffee.

My Own Recipes
When buying the lamb have the butcher bone the loin. He will roll and sew it for you too, but if you make a stuffing and roll and sew it yourself the meat will "go" further. A plain bread stuffing highly seasoned with salt and pepper and onion is particularly good.

STUFFED ONIONS
4 good-sized onions
4 slices salt pork
23 cup left-over meat
12 cup nuts
13 cup cooked rice
salt and paprika
2 tablespoons grated cheese

Scoop out the center of onions. Chop this part with the salt pork. Cook in a frying pan till brown. Add meat, nuts, rice and salt and pepper and mix thoroughly. Fill onion shells with mixture. Put in a buttered baking dish, pour boiling water around them, cover closely and bake till tender.
